DISCLOSURE FORM

Collaborative Family Healthcare Association 2009 Annual Conference
"Families, Culture and Collaborative Care: Perspectives from Home and Abroad"
October 22-24, 2009 San Diego, California USA

Documentation of disclosures to participants is required.

In accordance with UCSD's accreditation requirements, all CFHA Conference presenters are required to disclose to the activity audience any relevant financial interests or other relationships with the manufacturer(s) of commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in an educational presentation. This form must be completed and returned to CFHA prior to the 2009 Conference to ensure CE/CME accreditation.

The University of California, San Diego Continuing Medical Education (UCSD CME) requires that the content of CME activities and related materials provide balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor. Planning must be free of the influence or control of a commercial entity, and promote improvements or quality in healthcare. Faculty participating in UCSD sponsored CME programs are expected to disclose to the activity participants any conflict(s) of interest that may have a direct bearing on the subject matter in their role as planners or presenters. This pertains to relationships with pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the course content. UCSD CME has the following mechanisms in place to resolve conflicts of interest 1) altering the financial relationship with the commercial interest, 2) altering the individual's control over CME content about the products or services of the commercial interest, and/or 3) validating the activity content through independent peer review. UCSD CME will resolve all conflicts of interest prior to an educational activity being delivered to learners. Participants will be asked to evaluate whether the speaker's outside interests reflect a possible bias in the planning or presentation of the activity. This information is used to plan future activities.
